Note from the President

Great Day Kiwanians!!!!

I am so excited about this year!!! After being involved with Kiwanis for the last three years and getting involved with the projects and my ever favorite "Youth Services" I have learned so much and am very excited to take on a new "project" the role of President. It is a blessing to my heart that my fellow Kiwanians nominated me for this role and have been so supportive. I look forward to working hard for you and continuing the many wonderful works that we do in our community. I also look forward finding new opportunities in our community. Using the Club Excellence Tool each Kiwanian has had the opportunity to give input about our club. I greatly appreciate the input received. Using that tool I created a list of goals and will work diligently to achieve each of them. Some include: creating a vision statement, naming our values, achieving club buy-in on projects by utilizing workdays and an open environment, having social outings and creating a strategic plan. We have had an excellent start and I am pumped about the coming months. I thank everyone for their dedication to Kiwanis and I also appreciate that so many of you have stepped up to take on various

Pancake Supper - Success!

Thanks to your hard work our pancake supper was a huge success, especially when considering the economic situation. According to Flapjacks, we served 585 people, a record for us. Our proceeds are nearing $10,000 and may actually reach that figure, just shy of what we netted last year. We had more sponsors but the amounts donated per sponsor were lower. Fourteen Kiwanians, 8 B&GC members, several spouses and friends, and 7 Flapjacks employees helped with the event. Eric entertained with his accordion playing and his antics. Customers appeared to have a great time and feedback was very good.

Three New Members

We have inducted three new members since October 1. Jackie Ownby, a former member taking time off to assist United Way, has returned. Welcome back Jackie!

Ginger Riggs and Geri Rennie, both of Thompson-Carr Realty, were introduced to our club by Eric Schreiner. Welcome Ginger and Geri. We look forward to your contributions to our club's service and activities.

roles this year. Have a blessed month!!! See you on Tuesdays.

SMARM Coat Donations

Kristin Lewis spearheaded a Kiwanis project to furnish coats to the Smoky Mountain Area Rescue Mission. On Friday, October 16, she and Jessica Page delivered 24 coats to SMARM. Several people will stay warm this winter as a result of the generosity of club members. Thanks to all who helped.

Sevierville Kiwanis Teams up with Tom Meisenzahl and Allstate in Tell a Gal Pal Program

“The Allstate Foundation and my agency are grateful for your assistance in the success of our Tell a Gal Pal Program. This program was designed to provide interview appropriate clothing for women who are entering or re-entering the workforce after leaving a domestic violence situation. Your donations provided more clothing than would fill our delivery box. What a great problem to have!

Thanks to all of you, we were able to donate the following 165 items to Safe Space:

37 Suits	21 Pants
36 Dresses	11 Skirts
7 Pantsuits	1 Jackets
35 Tops	3 Purses
8 Sweater Tops	6 Shoes

All items were in very good to excellent condition and will certainly make a difference in someone's life. Remember, to the world you may be someone, but to someone you may be the world. Thank you for being the world to someone who really needs it.”

Sincerely,
Tom Meisenzahl

Interclubs

We had two interclubs in October. Three members visited the Northside Kiwanis club October 14 and five members attended the Kentucky-Tennessee Governor’s Official Visit to Division 5 at the LeConte Club in Knoxville.
